Dear Sir:

I have recently received your catalogue No.400, April, 1920, for which I wish to thank you. On looking through it somewhat hurriedly, I notice at least one book which I desire - No.316, Memoires of Sir Philip Francis. If you still have this, I should be very glad to have you send it to me. As a matter of fact, this book is one I desire anyway, and would be glad to take another copy of it if the one listed in the Catalogue is not available.

Very truly yours,

Assistant to Curator

Dear Sir:

If you can supply No.1134 (Numismatic Essays in Honour of Barclay V. Head) of your Catalogue No. 503, you may send us at the same time, No. 1126 (English Seals). I do not want the second title if the first has already been sold.

Very truly yours,

Librarian
